ROBINSON---MYERS

Wedding To Be Solemnized in Louisville, Wednesday, May the Eighth.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Cordie Robinson, of Tulsa, Indian Territory, to Mr. Fred Myers, of this city, in Louisville, Wednesday, May the eighth.

The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mr. Samuel Robinson, formerly of Dunnville, Casey county, and asister of Mrs. Asure Damron, this city. For several months Miss Robinson made this place her home, and her many friends will be delighted to learn that she will return and cast her lot among them. A young lady of charming personality, who by her cheerful and lovable disposition is a general favorite we can but feel sure that the home she will adorn will be happy and the husband she has chosen will be fortunate indeed.

Mr. Myers is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Myers, and a young man richly endowed with ability, energy and honesty and we feel sure will make his mark in business circles. Mr. Myers is Treasurer of the Myers Electric Light Co., and is connected with the Columbia Model Mills.

It gives us pleasure to chronicle the above announcement and assurances of the News' best wishes along life's journey.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING.

Next Monday night is the regular meeting of the Commercial Club. Every member ought to be present. The only real effort to advance the public good has been a signal failure. Many people in the county have been misinformed as to the real worth of such an organization and there are some within the limits of Columbia who have not been able to see the good that can be had by united effort. It is a great mistake for any people to content themselves with unpleasant and non-progressive surroundings. The Club if alive to the real good, united on the one great proposition, to better public conditions, can have an influence that will accomplish much. It is no time to weaken, it is no time to disband. The first effort, the first failure should not discourage but fire the ambition to bring success. Come at the tap of the bell.

SURVEY MADE.

The survey for the pike from Greensburg to the Adair line has been made and all the grades fell within the expected 3 per cent except the one near Ebenezer which was 3½. We are informed that the people of Milltown and vicinity see the importance to their part of the country by building a pike to connect with the above road and that they expect to have a survey made in the near future. Such a move would be worth much to that part of the county. It would also furnish more resting time for the business people of Columbia.

SMALL-POX AT LIBERTY.

Chas. Sharp returned home the first of the week with a well developed case of small pox. Dr. Wesley has taken charge of the case and every precaution will be taken to prevent a spread of the disease. Meanwhile he urges every one to be vaccinated.—Casey Co. News.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

On her fourteenth birthday, Miss Verna Hurt entertained a number of her young friends in a very pleasant manner. Refreshments were served, and a guessing contest in which Miss Annie Faulkner was the winner was a very entertaining feature. The following were present: Misses Annie Faulkner, Amelia Damron, Nell Hancock, Ruby Stapp, Ralph Hurt, Edwin Craven, Count Stults and Sidney Dunbar.

"J S STAPP DORMITORY."

Work has begun on the "J. S. Stapp Dormitory" of the Russell Creek Baptist Academy. Our people greatly appreciate Mr. Stapp's gift of $1,000 to this building, which will be a substantial monument to the memory of the good man whose name it bears. The dormitory is estimated to cost when completed $5,000, and will be another building that will be a credit to the town and county. It is to be a substantial pressed brick structure 66x44 feet—three stories high; containing 25 or 26 rooms, beside basement, which will be heated by the latest improved hot water system, and will be modern in every respect.—Taylor County Enquirer.

Mr. W. D. King, representative of the Louisville Dry Goods Co., has decided to enter the Agricultural field to some extent and show the people how to produce the luscious "Water-melon". He has leased a small plot of ground and in keeping with the old custom had the seed planted this morning, May the 1st, before sunrise. Just what will happen in the vine patch, how large the melons will grow and how prolific the vines will be cannot now be approximated but something is going to happen and the report made about fair time.

Mr. C. S. Harris, of the Adair, County News, Columbia, was in our city last Monday. He is sure stirring up the boys in good style on the county roads, and we are sure they deserve it all and more too. Give it to 'em Brer. Harris we are for you, and we hope you may be able to force your Fiscal Court to improve the roads. We want to see you win in your undertaking, if we did fail. But we have not given up the fight yet.—Taylor Co., Enquirer.

The Jamestown Exposition is now open. All who pride in the early history of our country, who would like to visit historic old Virginia and view the land of their ancestors should arrange to take a trip down the James. Its a grand old country, full of historic interest and the trip will be worth many times its cost.

Messrs. Fred Myers and Tim Cravens, in company with Heck Burton as guide, paid the Miller fields, in the Eastern end of Adair county, a visit one day last week. In a five hours hunt they bagged twenty-seven squirrels and a ground hog. That was goin' some.

DEATH

Of Mrs. John S. Keen, Near Allen, New Mexico, Sunday, April 21st.

On Sunday last, April 21st, Mrs. A. R. Keen, wife of Rev. John S. Keen died near Allen, New Mexico. She had been in poor health for some years past, and grew worse for several days and passed away to her reward. No more devoted Christian ever lived in this country than she. Her whole life was one of labor and sacrifice for others and for the cause she loved, her devotion to her Lord was steadfast, she never faltered, she was always cheerful and full of hope and passed her whole life laboring for the cause she loved.

She has gone to a glorious reward and has a home in her Fathers house, where she will be forever at rest. While we feel and shed a tear at the thought of her death, yet we know she was not afraid to die and had been fully prepared for many years for the change. Not a more sweet spirited woman ever lived, her life was not equaled by but few, it was a model Christian life, such as we but seldom ever see.

She leaves behind, her husband, Rev. John S. Keen, her two sons, one Marion H. Keen, who is a preacher in the Louisville Conference, now finishing his course in the University, at Nashville, Tennessee, the other John H. Keen, who is connected with the University of Texas, at Austin in that state.

She was born and reared on Big creek in this county and was at one time connected with the Male and Female High School, at this place as a teacher and where she was educated.

She was the daughter of Alexander and Margaret A. Hindman, she leaves behind her brothers and sisters, most of whom live in this community.

James R. Hindman, Mrs. J. D. Flowers, William A. Hindman, Mrs. T. F. Nell, of Somerset, Charles M. Hindman, another sister Mrs. Fenna Allen passed away two years ago at Birmingham, Ala. J. R. H.

MARRIED MEN VS. SINGLE MEN.

Saturday afternoon will witness the opening of the base ball season in Columbia, when the married men will line up against the single men. On the first named team will be found many of the old time sluggers and they confidently expect to make it warm for the kids. The Columbia Band will be asked to make music and the largest crowd of the season is anticipated. An admission fee of 10 cts will be charged the men and boys, the proceeds to go to the L. W. T. S., park. Following players comprise the single men's club: Stults, G. Montgomery, Hindman, R. Judd, Rosenfield, T. Judd, R. Dohoney, Shelton, Cravens. The married men present the following list from which a team will be chosen: J. E. Bobo, C. M. Russell, E. G. Atkins, Mike Winfrey, H. N. Miller, W. F. Hancock, Jo E. Flowers, W. H. Wilson, Ores Barger, S. F. White, H. Jeffries, Robt. Price, James Eubank, E. W. Reed, R. R. Moss, L. L. Eubank. Umpires—James Garnett and Jno. D. Lowe.

ART CLASS ENTERTAINMENT.

Miss Trabue's Art Class entertained a large number of friends at her home, Willow Glen, last Saturday evening. The evening was very delightfully spent and will long be remembered by those who were in attendance. Refreshments were served.

SECOND VICTORY FOR L. W. T. S.

The second match game of ball between the Lindsay-Wilson Training School team and the Russell Springs Academy resulted in a victory for the home by the score of 16 to 12. Heavy batting and errors were responsible for the large score. Stearman, the Russell Springs back stop, suffered a badly smashed hand in the first inning.

David Baird, wholesale Milliner, of Louisville, died Sunday evening, Mr. Baird was one of Louisvilles progressive men and had built a large business. His many customers throughout the country will receive the intelligence of his death with sadness.
